

Our power bills are already nearly crippling us it is the single biggest expence we have,I cant comprehend the financial difficulties further increases will create for us.We cant pass on the increase and things are so tight already