Proposal to change the averaging period — late information

On 15 November 2018, Aurizon Network wrote to the QCA seeking to provide further updated information to support its proposal to revise the averaging period.

While this information has been provided after the QCA's stated deadline for submissions, the QCA intends to take this material into consideration prior to any final decision in relation to Aurizon Network's 2017 DAU.

Aurizon Network's correspondence is available on our website.

Preparation of a final decision

Notwithstanding the provision of late information by Aurizon Network, the QCA still expects to make its final decision by the end of November 2018.
