Attn. Ms Cath Barker

Dear Ms Barker,

To avoid duplication of evidence relating to this complaint I have requested a list of documentation supporting the QCA's concerns. Was the QCA complaint to CMC a "criminal complaint" or an "official misconduct" complaint?

Further evidence supporting an official misconduct complaint can be found in Submissions #59 and #84 listed on the Productivity Commission's Urban Water Sector Inquiry website.

Kind regards,

Richard Koerner

Attn. Mr. Dylan Jones

Dear Mr. Jones,

I refer again to the CMC letter dated 7 July relating to official misconduct at the highest levels of the Queensland Government (including ministerial misconduct).

It is my understanding that this correspondence resulted from a communication from the Queensland Competition Authority (QCA) that was accompanied with supporting documentation. In order that duplication of information can be minimised it would be helpful if a list of supporting documentation that may have been cited in the QCA's complaint could be made available.

Documentary evidence relating to investigation of improper manipulation of regulatory assets by Governmental agencies that is in breach of of National Water Initiative Pricing Principles can also be obtained from the Queensland Ombudsman's files 2007/12525, 2009/01549, and 2010/02940. I understand that the Ombudsman would provide this material to assist the CMC's further investigation if requested.

Kind regards,

Richard Koerner

Attn. Mr. Dylan Jones

Dear Mr. Jones,

Thank you for the letter dated 7 July (Ref: MI-111508DBJONES).

The governance concerns expressed to QCA stem from supporting material provided in public submissions to both the Productivity Commission's current Urban Water Sector Inquiry and the National Water Commission's 2011 Biennial Assessment. Issues raised are far broader in scope than improper appointments to the board of SEQwater. Attached is the submission to National Water Commission's 2011 Biennial Assessment.

In due course I will provide the CMC selected background correspondence that demonstrates misconduct at the highest levels of the Queensland Government relating to failure to adopt of NWI reform agreements with the Federal Government in SEQ.

Kind regards,

Richard Koerner
