

The increase in power bills from 1st July 2016 for Tariff 20 (and the other business and rural tariffs) will hurt my agricultural fruit tree business in which I grow and pack tropical fruits and employ over 20 workers. I've already changed my flouro lights to led, changed the door seals on my cool room and changed an air conditioning unit in the office to a 7 star unit. What is next, just switch everything off ??